Supply chains under threat

Risk of imbalance is inherent to complex global networks

- Natural disasters / pandemic
- Terrorism
- Economic cycles
- Geo-political instability
- Shortages of capacity (labour)
- ESG

Safety

- Abandoned cargo
- Dangerous goods
- Poor practices

Security

- Cargo theft
- Freight crime
- Fraud
- Shift in targeted modes
- Insider risk

Freight crime data

- Data is key
- Detailed data
- Mapping risk trends
- Data sharing
- Raising awareness
- Mitigation strategies

Migration

- Stowaways
- Clandestine migration
- Economic migration
- Civil wars
- Persecution

Call to Action

Disappearing ability to absorb short-term shocks inherent to complex global networks.

Future supply chain technologies will be the big winner.

Mitigating risk/raising awareness

“

It's not the usual relationship between an insurer and the assured. Ours is a long-term partnership where TT Club has supported us as our business has grown and our needs have changed.
