

The first SAFETY4SEA EUROPORT Awards, consisting of four categories; Smart, Safe, Green and Career, were presented during the Europort 2019 exhibition, 5-8 November, in Rotterdam Ahoy.

SAFETY4SEA conducted its first Manila Forum, November 21, at New World Manila Bay Hotel, Philippines, focusing on ways to attract new generations and diversified talents in the sector.

The second SAFETY4SEA Singapore Forum, November 14, at Marina Bay Sands Expo & Convention Center, discussed the future of the industry in line with the technological developments and the new environmental regulation.

IBIA Annual Convention 2019, which was conducted in Istanbul, October 22-24, focused on the transition to the global low-sulphur regime in light of the upcoming 2020 sulphur cap.

The 2019 "Global Maritime Issues Monitor" report was launched during GMF Annual Summit in Singapore, addressing shipping's current issues, from the diversity in maritime workforce to a zero-emission industry.

On November 13, Port of Dover won the ESPO Award for its efforts on boosting relations with port citizens via social media, and for its transparency about operational achievements, future strategies and environmental challenges.