

Key maritime stakeholders gathered during the Global Maritime Forum 2019 underway in Singapore, Oct. 30-31, presenting "9 Golden Safety Rules", in line with the 'Together in Safety' initiative aiming to a zero-incident industry.

Under IMO's Symposium "IMO 2020 and Alternative fuels", Oct. 17-18, Kitack Lim, Secretary General, highlighted the importance of collaboration within the industry to achieve the goals of decarbonization.

Isabelle Ryckbost, ESPO's Secretary General awarded Port of Barcelona, Port of Vigo and Port of Baku with the EcoPorts' environmental management standard, on October 18, during the Green Port Congress in Oslo.

ECSA launched, on 29 October in Brussels, a Maritime Growth Plan which will act as a strategic framework that will boost EU's shipping industry and develop a world-class maritime cluster.

The Port of Antwerp inaugurated on October 23, the first solar concentrator farm in the European process industry, generating eco-friendly heat from concentrated sunlight that can be used by industrial companies.

30 companies and institutional investors signed up to the UN Global Compact Sustainable Ocean Principles, on October 23, committing to take action and secure a healthy and productive ocean.